VAIL VETERANS PROGRAM SUMMER FAMILY PROGRAM

JULY 16 - 21

Wounded Veterans and their families build confidence and independence through participation in therapeutic outdoor sports, including rock climbing, whitewater rafting, horseback riding, zip-lining, mountain biking, and fly-fishing. Through group meals and evening activities, participants have the opportunity to reconnect with their families and to build relationships with peers experiencing similar challenges in the transition to civilian life after a military service injury. A wellness day, with yoga, meditation, and acupuncture, provides participants with coping mechanisms that long outlast the duration of the program.
